The Weather Indoors by Nell Garroway (Harrow Lane Books, 2025)

Questions for discussion

1. Maggie hides the council letter in the bread bin. What else in the novel is hidden in plain sight, and who is it hidden from?

2. The book is told over eleven days of storms. How does the weather change the way the Ashworths speak to each other?

3. Ruth comes home with a suitcase and no explanation. When did you guess why, and did it change how you read her?

4. Kit's son talks to the radio. What is the radio to him, and what is it to the rest of the family?

5. Is Gull House a character in the novel? What would it say if it could speak?

6. The last chapter takes place in March. Did the ending feel like a loss, a relief or both?
